

Helping Students Achieve Big Dreams

Working in higher education, you understand student struggles. Classrooms (online and campus-based) have more working parents, older adults, first-generation and low-income students than they used to. And as student diversity grows, the need to provide support services to this population also grows.

The Attigo® Suite offers solutions to address the needs of individual students throughout their higher education journey.

The Attigo Suite can help your students reach their goals by delivering the right support at the right time.

Our nationally recognized persistence and completion curriculum, student debt letter, student loan repayment counseling and training for higher education professionals makes postsecondary success and achieving big dreams easier.

The whole is greater than the sum of its parts.

Each Attigo solution brings value to student success programming. But when combined, their power to transform lives and achieve goals is exponentially greater.

College Cost Meter®

Student Debt Letter Correspondence

Present the financial aid and student loan information your students need to make better enrollment and college financing decisions. This customizable, fully compliant and cost-effective solution produces the correspondence schools need to comply with state requirements for sending indebtedness data. Audit reports list the students who were sent correspondence and provides exact copies of the communication to support compliance or follow-up counseling. School branding, no login barrier and private loan details are just some of the reasons why using College Cost Meter provides the most comprehensive information for student success.
